

Plagiarism and good academic practice

Plagiat – Reglement zur Integrität

Guidelines

The Language Centre subscribes to the Code of Academic Integrity and Good Practice in the Conduct of Research of the University of Basel as available on the University website.

Code of Academic Integrity and Good Practice in the Conduct of Research of the University of Basel
Reglement zur Integrität und zum Fehlverhalten in der Wissenschaft der Universität Basel

Regarding the details of what counts as plagiarism and how to avoid it, the Language Centre follows the guidelines of Harvard College Writing Program published as the Harvard Guide to Using Sources
Harvard Guide to Using Sources

Additional information on publication ethics can be found at <http://publicationethics.org/>

Where appropriate, participants may be required to sign the form below explicitly declaring that they are familiar with and adhere to the Code of Academic Integrity and the Harvard Guide to Using Sources.

Consequences

A student who fails to comply with these guidelines will receive one warning and have the opportunity, as stipulated by the Language Centre, to either revise and resubmit the work or to submit alternative work.

Failure to comply with these guidelines after a warning will mean that the lecturer will not accept such work. Under certain conditions this will mean that students do not fulfill course requirements and are not eligible for credit points.

Declaration on academic integrity and plagiarism

I _____ hereby acknowledge that I am familiar with and adhere to the guidelines in the Code of Academic Integrity and Good Practice in the Conduct of Research of the University of Basel.

All work submitted during the course is my own, unless declared otherwise. All collaborations are acknowledged and all sources properly used and cited.

Signature

Date